Notes: Details may not add to totals because of rounding.

This table does not include administrative costs, which are discretionary and thus subject to appropriation. Supplemental benefits provided by states, whether administered by the states or by the Social Security Administration, are also excluded.

The "aged" category includes SSI recipients who qualify for benefits on the basis of their age (65 and older), in addition to their income and resources. The "blind and disabled" categories include SSI recipients who qualify for benefits on the basis of blindness or another disability, where adults are those aged 18 and older and children are those under age 18.
